Election next Tuesday.

SOMETHING AS TO D. L. LOVE .-- In our issue of the 14th we published a card from D. L. Love denying the statements in a former issue from the Memphis Appeal, that he had published slanderous reports concerning a young lady recently married in Huntsville, to whom he claims he was engaged at the time. Whether he was or not, and whatever may happen hereafter in the matter, or has happened, we are not particularly interested in, and we wouldn't take the trouble to pay any attention to him now if he had not imposed upon our disposition to always be fair, and used our columns to perpetrate a lie. He said in his communication to the Dispatch that the Appeal article was greatly exaggerated and did in the State. Our Democratic lished facts, and the accusation that him injustice, and that he only pubhe had accused the lady of foul more than a match for Col.
